Colorado State student-athletes realize the impact they have on others around them, even off the court. That's why each volleyball player participates in some form of volunteer service, ranging from working youth camps to reading to elementary students. In the 2017-18 school year, the Colorado State volleyball team amassed 40-plus hours of community service per player - the most among CSU's 16 sports teams.

> "It's been part of our team culture from the beginning that we believe that going out and building our fan base happens one person at a time and you do that by getting out into the community. We've always done it and the players see that it works and it also helps develop character" -- Head Coach Tom Hilbert

COACHES & SUPPORT STAFF

JOE PARKER

Director of Athletics | Fourth Year | Michigan, '87

PARKER AT A GLANCE

EDUCATION

- Bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan
- MBA from Texas

PERSONAL

- Wife: Jennie; Children: Emma and Will
- Hometown: Battle Creek, Mich.
- Three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan
- Deputy A.D. at Texas Tech 2011-15
- Senior Associate A.D. at Michigan, Oklahoma, Washington State and Texas

Joe Parker is in his fourth year as Director of Athletics at Colorado State University in 2018-19. A proven athletics administrator with experience at some of the nation's finest collegiate programs, Parker was hired on March 17, 2015 by CSU President Dr. Tony Frank.

Parker, who had been the deputy athletics director at Texas Tech of the Big 12 Conference since April 2011, also has served as senior associate A.D. at the University of Michigan (Big 10), the University of Oklahoma (Big 12), Washington State University (Pac-12) and the University of Texas (Big 12).

In Parker's first three-plus years in Fort Collins he has skillfully and thoughtfully guided the athletics department and the university through the construction of Colorado State's 41,000-capacity multipurpose stadium, which opened on-time and on-budget for the 2017 football season and hosted a school-record 32,062 fans per game. The state-of-the-art facility houses all aspects of the Rams' football program and includes general classroom space, the Collaborative for Student Achievement and the Iris & Michael Smith Alumni Center.

Parker has led the department of athletics through the successful process of selling out all premium seating inventory in the stadium. Comprised of private suites, loge boxes, indoor club and outdoor club seating, the entire premium seating inventory sold out in October 2016, nearly a year before the stadium's opening. Season ticket sales reached a record of 15,500 for the 2017 season and memberships had sold out by May 2017 to the stadium's two unique VIP areas—the New Belgium Porch and Orthopaedic & Spine Center of the Rockies Field Club.

In April 2018, Parker and CSU President Dr. Tony Frank announced a $37.7 million naming rights partnership with Public Service Credit Union, which was in the process of re-branding to Canvas Credit Union, ushering in the name Canvas Stadium on June 5, 2018. All of the announced partnerships by prominent Colorado companies illustrate the tremendous connection between the university and the community, and demonstrate great enthusiasm for partnering with Colorado State and investing in its future.

Since beginning his tenure in Fort Collins, Parker has overseen tremendous success by the Rams' athletics programs in competition, and continued growth of Colorado State Athletics. CSU boasted 10 All-America awards and one individual NCAA champion (Mostafa Hassan, indoor shot put) in 2017-18. Eight of the Rams' 16 athletics programs finished in the top 3 of the Mountain West, and 11 participated in postseason competition. In 2016-17 the Rams had the MW's highest average finish (3.94) across its 16 sport programs, claiming three conference championships and six second-place finishes. The Rams were represented in 10 NCAA postseason competitions, and including the two basketball programs competing in their respective National Invitation Tournaments and football's bowl game, 13 of the 16 CSU athletic programs wrapped up their year in postseason events.

CSU's volleyball and women's basketball programs both went undefeated in their 18 Mountain West contests during the 2015-16 academic year, making CSU just the fourth school in NCAA history to have dual undefeated conference seasons, and the first time in school history. The CSU football team has qualified for its third, fourth and fifth consecutive bowl games since Parker's hire, and the Rams have claimed 11 total MW championships under his leadership.

In Parker's tenure he also has signed an extension of Colorado State's multi-year agreement with Under Armour to be its official apparel provider through 2021, as well an enhanced, long-term multimedia rights partnership with Learfield, both of which position Colorado State for continued growth in its profile and stature nationally.

During Parker's time as deputy A.D. at Texas Tech he oversaw a Big 12 Conference program with 17 teams and an annual budget of $68.5 million. Under Parker's leadership in building excitement and engagement among Red Raider fans, the university achieved first-ever sellouts for football season tickets and broke attendance records in football, men's basketball and baseball. In addition, Parker was involved in all Title IX and Gender Equity issues at Texas Tech. During his tenure as deputy A.D., Parker also led programs to boost the classroom success of student-athletes and led the development and launch of a $185 million fundraising campaign.

At Michigan, highlights of Parker's eight-year tenure (2003-11) included serving on a four-person team that was responsible for more than $400 million in infrastructure improvements, including the renovation and creation of new revenue opportunities at Michigan Stadium, known as "The Big House." Parker helped secure $14 million in annual gift revenue and more than $31 million in major gifts to support the stadium renovation project, lauded as one of the premier renovation projects in the country. Parker joined his alma mater in 2003 as associate athletics director for development and was promoted in 2006 to senior associate athletics director for development and corporate relations.

At the University of Texas (1994-98), Washington State (1998-99) and the University of Oklahoma (2000-03), Parker led successful efforts in annual giving, season-ticket sales and premium seating programs, and also was involved in facilities development and renovation projects.

While with the Sooners, Parker provided leadership support for a $120 million capital campaign for athletic facility improvements. Additionally, he designed and implemented a new premium seating program, which funded 70-percent of the $75 million football stadium renovation.

Parker was a three-time All-America swimmer at Michigan, and also became team captain. He earned a gold and bronze medal as a senior in the 1987 World University Games in Zagreb, Yugoslavia. Parker earned his bachelor's degree in economics from Michigan, and an M.B.A. from the University of Texas. He and his wife, Jen, have two children, Emma and Will, both of whom are students at Colorado State.

WHAT THEY HAVE SAID ABOUT JOE PARKER...

Kirby Hocutt, Texas Tech Athletics Director
"I am very excited for Joe, Jennie, Will and Emma on their new opportunity at Colorado State University. Joe is one of the most talented and thoughtful administrators in the nation, and I could not be more appreciative of his friendship, hard work, and dedication to Texas Tech athletics over the past four years. His day-to-day leadership has been an instrumental part of our progress and Texas Tech athletics is better today because of the important role he has played within our department. President Frank and Colorado State have made a tremendous hire and one that will provide strong leadership for their athletics department. I know the CSU coaches, athletics department staff and community will enjoy getting to know Joe Parker and his wonderful family."

Jeff Long, former Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics, University of Arkansas
"Joe Parker is an outstanding athletics administrator. He possesses the experience, intelligence and concern for the student-athlete that are vital to successfully lead an FBS intercollegiate program today. Having worked at some of the finest academic and athletic institutions, Joe is exceedingly prepared to lead Colorado State University."

Joe Castiglione, Vice President & Director of Athletics, University of Oklahoma
"I've had the great fortune to have first-hand experience working with Joe Parker as part of our athletic program here at Oklahoma and closely following his continued growth in our industry. From his background as a student-athlete to his accomplishments as an administrator, it's really exciting to see a real life example of preparation meeting opportunity. This is a true success story. Colorado State University has hired a dynamic leader with great skills and impeccable integrity who will build great relationships with stakeholders and collectively create a wonderful environment for student-athlete achievement in the classroom and their athletic endeavors. We are grateful for all of Joe's contributions to Oklahoma and happy for him, Jennie, and their entire family. We're confident they will be enthusiastically welcomed and embraced just as they were here. Congratulations to the entire Ram Nation!

Christine Plonsky, Women's AD/Exec. Sr. Associate A.D., University of Texas
"Colorado State University and college athletics enjoy a positive day as Joe Parker assumes A.D. responsibilities. Joe has been destined for a high profile leadership role, given his administrative experience, fundraising ability and his ever-present vision for excellence. I've been honored to work with Joe directly during a period of critical change at Texas. He has a deep appreciation for teamwork and for modeling what a positive student-athlete environment should be. He sets a wonderful example for coaches, staff and student-athletes. People trust Joe, and he inspires others to work better around him. Colorado State is a perfect community for Joe, Jennie and their family. He will be a giving, admired and connected leader for Rams athletics and the University. Our A.D. group in NCAA Division I is thrilled that Joe has received this opportunity."

Bill Martin, former Athletics Director, University of Michigan
"Joe Parker is an excellent choice to be the new Director of Intercollegiate Athletics for Colorado State. He has an appreciation, a sensitivity and an understanding of intercollegiate athletics through his career as a student-athlete swimming for the University of Michigan, and then as an athletic administrator. Joe played a key role in the successful renovation of Michigan Stadium, overseeing the design and marketing of all the premium seating. His integrity, his knowledge, his passion, his leadership skills and his personality combined to make him an effective team leader. Joe was the 'go-to' individual for so many on our staff and for me personally; he was a trusted confidante who helped lead our department in every role he was asked to take on."

Chris Del Conte, Athletics Director, University of Texas
"CSU today hired the perfect person to lead this program. Joe has had many opportunities to be an athletic director. I can't think of anyone more prepared than Joe for this opportunity. During his stops at Washington State, Texas, Michigan, Oklahoma and Texas Tech, he has not only led as a visionary for building facilities but acquired the knowledge necessary to lead this program in today's environment."

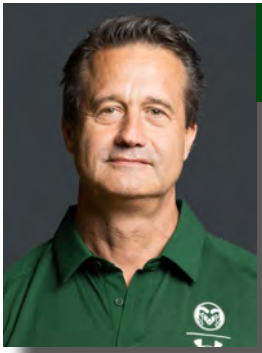
DeLoss Dodds, retired Athletic Director, University of Texas
"Joe did a terrific job at the University of Texas. He is bright, he is people-friendly. He's got great experience at several different places, and is knowledgeable about the business. Joe has a great family and a terrific wife. CSU is very fortunate to have him as part of their community."

WHAT THEY SAID AT TEXAS TECH...

M. Duane Nellis, President, Texas Tech University
"Over the last two years I've known Joe Parker, his impact on the daily operations of the athletics department has been impressive. Upon meeting him it was obvious he would make this transition one day. Our loss is truly Colorado State's gain."

Kliff Kingsbury, Head Football Coach, Texas Tech
"Joe Parker is one of the most impressive individuals I have ever had the privilege of working with. His passion for the well-being of the student-athlete is unparalleled. Colorado State has hired an incredible athletics director and an even better man. He will be sincerely missed here at Texas Tech, and we wish him and his family nothing but the best."

Marsha Sharp, Texas Tech retired Women's Basketball coach and 1993 National Champion in WBB
"All of us at Texas Tech will hate to lose Joe Parker, but we couldn't be more excited for him and this new opportunity. Joe is a man of solutions. He is thoughtful, fair and a good listener and that approach allows him to discover solutions. Joe will do a great job as the athletics director at Colorado State."



TOM HILBERT

HEAD COACH | 22ND SEASON | OKLAHOMA, '84

The Colorado State women's volleyball program has become synonymous with consistent winning under the guidance and direction of Head Coach Tom Hilbert, who enters his 22nd season with the Rams and his 30th overall as a collegiate head coach in 2018.

With 10 Mountain West Coach of the Year awards to his credit in the league's 19-year history, it is clear why Hilbert's program has risen to the top and has become a stalwart on the national stage as a perennial top-25 team.

Under Hilbert, who was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame as the Hall of Honor recipient in 2006, the Rams have developed into one of the top programs in the nation, qualifying for the NCAA tournament all 21 seasons under his guidance. Overall, CSU has played in 23 consecutive tournaments dating back to 1995, which ranks seventh nationally. The stretch also includes six Regional Semifinals appearances (Sweet 16) and 15 first-round victories.

Through the 2017 campaign, Hilbert owns a career record of 712-198 (.782), including a 538-126 (.810) mark during his tenure at Colorado State. Hilbert boasts a 291-41 (.877) record in conference play since coming to Fort Collins in 1997.

Entering 2018, Hilbert ranks 8th among active Division I head coaches (13th all-time) for winning percentage (.782), and 10th for total wins (712). Of those ranked in the top 20 for wins, Hilbert has coached the second-fewest total matches, owning a career record of 712-198. With the Rams' win vs. San Jose State on Oct. 13, 2017, Hilbert became just the 10th coach in NCAA Division I women's volleyball history to record at least 700 victories and a career winning percentage above .780.

On Nov. 4, 2010, he became the winningest coach in any sport in CSU history, earning a victory over UNLV, his 353rd in Fort Collins. The win surpassed former men's basketball coach Jim Williams' mark of 352 victories. A year prior, Hilbert eclipsed the 500-win mark for his career. At the time, he was one of just two active coaches with more than 500 victories and fewer than 22 years of head coaching experience. Also in 2009, the veteran coach earned his 300th career win at CSU, moving ahead of his predecessor, Rich Feller, who won 299 matches from 1983-96.

The Rams won a seventh-consecutive Mountain West Championship in 2015, also earning regular-season titles in 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and 2014. The seven-year streak was the longest of its kind in the NCAA through 2015. In all, Hilbert has orchestrated 14 regular-season MW titles in 19 years, also adding five conference tournament championships in nine opportunities. The 19 total titles are more than all other MW teams -- past and present -- combined. CSU is 265-37 in MW action under Hilbert, never finishing lower than third. What's more, in 1998, CSU's final season in the WAC, the Rams won the Mountain Division. Of those who have played four seasons for the Rams under Hilbert, each has won at least two conference titles, with all but three winning three or more.

While at CSU, Hilbert has coached 13 players who have earned AVCA All-America selections, including five in the past eight years. On four occasions, a Ram has been named a Volleyball Magazine All-American, and 28 times one of Hilbert's players has been named All-America Honorable Mention by either the AVCA or Volleyball Magazine. Under Hilbert, CSU has also earned 13 MW Player-of-the-Year awards in the league's 19-year history, and a total of 88 all-conference selections.

In addition to 15 total Conference Coach-of-the-Year awards, Hilbert was named the 2013 AVCA Pacific North Region Coach of the Year, his second regional honor during a three-year period and fifth of his career. He was recognized at the NCAA Final Four in Seattle, Wash.

Hilbert has led his teams to 20 or more wins every season since 1992, a span of 26-consecutive seasons, including the final five at Idaho and every year while at CSU.

Expected to be a rebuilding year after graduating four senior starters, the 2013 Rams rewrote the CSU and Mountain West record books, winning their first 27 matches and finishing the season with a .933 winning percentage -- a program record.

The Rams carried over the momentum to 2014, a year in which CSU went 31-3 and advanced the Regional Semifinals of the NCAA tournament for the first time since 2009.

CSU switched to a 6-2 offense for the 2015 season, and did not miss a beat in league play, going undefeated in conference play for the second time (2003) with a 18-0 record against Mountain West foes and reaching a peak national ranking of No. 9.

With six freshmen seeing playing time (including four regularly starting) and only having one senior, CSU went 21-9 (15-3 MW) in 2016, finishing second in the conference and reaching its 22nd consecutive NCAA Tournament.

Colorado State returned to its championship caliber in 2017, adding its 14th Mountain West Championship trophy to the case. The Rams finished 29-4 and 17-1 in the conference, while defeating a pair of opponents in No. 16 Michigan and No. 15 Florida State - both within a week of eachother. CSU made its 23rd consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, rematching with Michigan in the first round. During the season, the Rams were ranked as high as 19 in the AVCA Poll set a program and MW record earning six conference selections.

Hilbert has also turned CSU's home court, Moby Arena, into one of the most effective in the nation, compiling a 301-35 (.896) all-time home record. The Rams are 47-49 at Moby against ranked opponents, most recently defeating No. 16 Michigan on Sept. 8, 2017. Hilbert has 46 total wins against ranked teams, including upsetting No. 1 UCLA in 2000.

With big wins come big crowds. The CSU faithful continuously rank in the top 15 nationally for annual attendance figures. The Rams ranked sixth in the NCAA in 2014, drawing 3,231 fans per match, including a school- and conference-record 7,018 vs. Wisconsin on Sept. 6. Between Sept. 18, 1998 and Nov. 18, 2000, CSU rattled off 44-consecutive home wins, a Moby Arena record for any sport. More recently, CSU has strung together streaks of 21 (2007-08 and 2012-13), 20 (2000-02) and 16 (2011-12).

CSU has been ranked in the AVCA top-25 poll more frequently than all but 12 Division I teams, with many of those rankings coming under Hilbert. In fact, Hilbert led CSU to its highest-ever ranking -- No. 3 for five weeks in 2000. On two occasions (2000, 2001), CSU has finished the year ranked in the top 10, and between Sept. 1, 1999 and Sept. 23, 2002, CSU was ranked 51 consecutive weeks.

Away from the court, Hilbert's teams have set the tone academically. During his tenure, two players have earned Academic All-America honors - Angela Knopf in 2000 and 2001 and Dana Cranston in 2012. Additionally, the Rams have earned 85 academic all-conference nods under Hilbert's guidance, including 43 over the past five seasons. His team's cumulative GPA continues to be well above 3.0.

Before coming to CSU, Hilbert accumulated a 174-72 (.707) record at Idaho -- which remains the best winning percentage by a coach in Idaho history. He helped the Vandals to the Big West Eastern Division title in 1996, and in the Big Sky, his teams won either the regular season or tournament championship every year from 1992-95. In each of those seasons, Hilbert's Vandals played in the NCAA tournament - posting first-round wins in 1993 and 1994 - and Hilbert was named the Big Sky Coach of the Year.

In his first season in Moscow, the Vandals went 15-14, a drastic improvement from the program's combined 16-41 mark from the two prior seasons. Just five years later, in 1994, Idaho recorded a program-record 31 victories (31-3). Hilbert coached the Big Sky's first All-American in Mindy Rice. He also guided Idaho to its first national ranking - the first-ever ranking by a Big Sky team. In addition to Rice, Hilbert tutored nine AVCA All-Region selections, four Big Sky MVPs and 20 all-conference recipients.

Prior to Idaho, Hilbert spent five seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, Oklahoma, from 1984-88. The Sooners went 115-56 (.673) in Hilbert's five seasons in Norman, including two trips to the NCAA Tournament and an appearance in the 1988 Regional Finals.

Away from the college game, Hilbert has coached several international trips through Bring It Promotions, including winning the Global Challenge in 2009 in Croatia and coaching a USA Select Team in Argentina in 2005.

A native of Norman, Okla., Hilbert earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing in 1984 from Oklahoma. In 1993, he received a master's degree in sports and recreation management from Idaho. Hilbert has resided in Fort Collins since 1997 with his daughter, Myles.

Q&A WITH HILBERT

WHAT IS YOUR COACHING PHILOSOPHY?

My philosophy in volleyball is you need to play low error and as athletic as possible. If you keep your errors down and you maximize your athleticism in all your hitting positions, you're going to beat a lot of teams, and that's what our goal is. I also have a philosophy that every player needs to try and make improvements and grow in all areas every day. Whether it's citizenship, academics or volleyball, that's an important part of what we do.

WHAT IS YOUR FAVORITE THING ABOUT COACHING AT CSU?

The support of the program is second to none. If you're a coach of volleyball at CSU, you know you're appreciated, you know the community is into what you're doing, and to me, that's the greatest reward; that's what makes the quality of my job so high. There are a lot of places that have great programs and good financial support, but CSU is a good program with good financial support and has fantastic community support. You really feel appreciated.

WHAT'S THE BIGGEST SELLING POINT WHEN TALKING TO A RECRUIT ABOUT COLORADO STATE?

The support that we get here. We're family-first, and we get a lot of support from administration, the university and our fans. You feel wanted, and you feel part of something special because of the support here.

WHAT TYPES OF PEOPLE DO YOU AIM TO DEVELOP YOUR PLAYERS INTO?

We want to develop them as citizens and community members. We want these players to learn to be good ambassadors to the university and the program; that is important to me. I want them also to learn to bond with each other and make great friends with this core support group. That will enhance their experience, as well.

WHAT OPPORTUNITIES DO PLAYERS HAVE AFTER COMPETING IN FORT COLLINS?

We've had a lot of student-athletes graduate here before going on to careers overseas. We've had three U.S. National team members and three Canadian National team members, plus countless professional contracts all over the world. What we want to do is prepare our athletes to live their dreams. If their dream is to be a college volleyball player here, we certainly want to give them that experience. Then, after that, if they want to continue to play and expand their game, we want to try and help them do that. We hope that they flourish even past CSU. A lot of players get better from ages 21-25, which is really neat to see.

WHAT IS IT LIKE TO PLAY IN MOBY ARENA?

There's no doubt, it's one of the best venues for volleyball in the United States, hands down. It's a big arena, but it's small and intimate enough that at a volleyball match you feel like there's a lot of people there — and a lot of times at our matches there are! It's the perfect size, it's aesthetically a beautiful place. I really do think it's one of the best places in the country, and it's one of the reasons I love it here so much.

WHAT DO YOU LOOK FOR IN A RECRUIT?

The first thing we look for is if the kid is physical enough to be at or among the best in the Mountain West. Once they pass that test, we start to look for character elements, like are they a good student? A good teammate? Are they going to be someone who's willing to come in and be part of this family and grow every day? If they have all of those characteristics, we want them to be part of this special program.

EMILY KOHAN

ASSISTANT COACH | THIRD SEASON | IOWA, '09

Emily Kohan begins her third season with the Colorado State volleyball coaching staff in 2018. The assistant coach was hired by Head Coach Tom Hilbert on Jan. 8, 2016. Kohan works primarily with the team's defense and passing, in addition to handling a large portion of its recruiting.

Kohan was named to the 2015 American Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Thirty Under 30 list, an award created to honor 30 of the up-and-coming volleyball coaches under 30 years old in the sport at all levels of the game. Of the recipients, 11 come from the Division I level. The honor is intended to recognize the sport's up-and-coming coaches.

Kohan joined the Rams from Oregon State, where she started as a volunteer assistant coach in 2011 before becoming an assistant coach in 2012. In 2015, Kohan helped Oregon State's freshman libero Kayla Ellis to an All-Freshman Honorable Mention season in the Pac-12, ranking second among the league's rookies in digs. Libero Darby Reeder set the OSU single-season record for digs in 2014 with 615, placing third in the Pac-12. Kohan also mentored libero Becky Defoe for three of her four seasons at Oregon State (2011-13), which were perhaps the finest defensive seasons in program history. Defoe, who ended her career in 2013, broke the school's record for digs in a career and is one of just 10 players in Pac-12 history with 2,000 or more.

Kohan also was the head coach of the Colorado Junior Volleyball Club for two years (2009-11), and also served as the head coach of the Boss Volleyball Club in Albany, Oregon (2011-15).

COACHING EXPERIENCE

2012-13	East Tennessee State, Assistant Coach
2014-Present	Colorado State, Assistant Coach

In 2017, CSU went 29-4 overall and 17-1 in the Mountain West earning its 14th Mountain West title and eighth of the last nine seasons. Murray led middle blockers Kirstie Hillyer and Paulina Hougaard-Jensen who finished the season ranked in the nation in both blocks and hitting percentage. The Rams finished ranked No. 14 in blocks per set in 2017.

Season number three, Colorado State went 21-9 and 15-3 in the conference - missing the MW title for the first time in seven seasons. Murray guided Kirstie Hillyer to a 1.59 blocks per set average, which ranked No. 4 in the country. The Rams finished No. 2 in the nation in blocks per set, which was the highest ranking for Colorado State.

In his second season, the Rams went 26-4, including an unblemished 18-0 mark in Mountain West action. CSU rode a 20-match win streak into the NCAA Tournament and reached a season-best national ranking of No. 9. CSU's middle blocker duo of Acacia Andrews and Alexandra Poletto were dominant, with both players ranking highly nationally in both blocks and hitting percentage.

In his first season on the Rams bench, CSU had a banner season, going 31-3 - the second-best winning percentage (.912) and second-highest win total in program history. The Rams won the Mountain West, were ranked as high as No. 6 nationally and advanced to the Regional Semifinals of the NCAA tournament.

Murray helped mentor five All-Mountain West selections in 2014, including middle blocker Kelsey Snider - who led the team in blocking - and Deedra Foss - who was named the Mountain West Player of the Year and the first AVCA All-America setter in school history.

As a team, CSU ranked high in several statistical categories, including 27th for blocking, averaging 2.67 per set. Additionally, Murray helped CSU to a .280 hitting percentage (seventh in the NCAA), .151 opponent hitting percentage (12th), 13.23 assists per set (17th) and 14.18 kills (18th). CSU was the only team in the country to rank in the top 30 for each category.

Prior to his arrival in Fort Collins, Murray spent two seasons (2012-13) as an assistant at East Tennessee State. With the Buccaneers, he guided the team to a pair of conference titles and a 45-22 overall record. In 2012, ETSU went 23-13 and appeared in the school's first-ever NCAA tournament after running the table during the Atlantic-Sun tournament. A year later, the Buccaneers went 22-9 and won the regular-season title.

Murray worked with the ETSU setters, the position he won a national championship at while playing for Penn State. As ETSU's top assistant, he also served as the team's recruiting coordinator and assisted with scouting and academics.

ETSU setter Jamie Rutledge averaged 10.79 assists per set in 2013 (52nd in NCAA), in addition to earning several community service and leadership awards. Murray also coached Megan Devine, the 2012 Atlantic-Sun Player of the Year and tournament MVP. Devine was also named a 2013 AVCA All-America Honorable Mention. Aside from setting, ETSU's offense was in the top 50 nationally for hitting percentage in 2013, and on defense, the Buccaneers ranked 19th in the NCAA with 2.77 blocks per set.

Even with a successful start to his coaching career, Murray is best known for his playing experience. The former setter helped Penn State to a national title in 2008, being named to the NCAA Championship All-Tournament Team. As a senior that year, Murray was also tabbed as an AVCA second-team All-America selection and the AVCA/Sports Imports National Player of the Week on March 27, 2008.

The two-time captain and first-team All-EIVA selection finished his career with 3,191 assists, which ranks seventh all-time in Penn State history. The Nittany Lions advanced to the semifinals or national championship all four years Murray was on the roster (2005-08). He played for head coach Mark Pavlik.

Following his collegiate career, Murray trained with the U.S. National Team in Anaheim, Calif., under Hugh McCutcheon and Alan Knipe (2008-09, spring 2011). From there, Murray played professionally in Cyprus and Puerto Rico (2009-12).

Murray spent three summers as a volleyball clinician with U.S. Elite Volleyball (2011-13), where he co-ran a clinic designed to help coaches implement effective practice methods. Prior to that, he spent two summers (2009-10) as the lead coach for Gold Medal Squared.

Away from the court, Murray has helped his players to plenty of success in the classroom. During the 2012-13 academic year, ETSU held a 3.59 grade-point average, with four student-athletes being placed on the Atlantic-Sun All-Academic Team, and during his first season at CSU seven players earned Mountain West Academic All-Conference honors.

Murray, a native of Washington, Pa., graduated from Penn State in 2008 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in history. He is married to the former Kendall Grow.

BRI OLMSTEAD

DIR. OF OPERATIONS | 13TH SEASON | COLORADO STATE, '06

Former Rams standout Bri Olmstead begins her 11th season as a full-time member with the Colorado State staff in 2018, and seventh as the program's director of operations. She is responsible for all off-the-court duties, including scheduling, travel logistics and the organization of CSU's summer camps. She is the program's first-ever director of operations, a position which was created prior to the 2012 season.

Olmstead, formerly Bri Frech, first joined the Rams as a player in 2003 after spending her freshman and sophomore seasons at Salt Lake City Community College. During the 2003 and 2004 seasons, Olmstead was a consistent starter for the Rams, earning All-Mountain West (2004) and MW Championships honors (2003, 2004) while leading CSU to NCAA bids both years and a combined 56-9 record (.862). As a junior, CSU advanced to the NCAA Regional Semifinals, and during Olmstead's senior season, the Rams were ranked as high as No. 9 nationally. Olmstead was a rare six-rotation middle blocker due to her serving and passing ability.

Today, she still ranks first in CSU volleyball history with 0.41 aces per set, totaling 92 over her two-year career. Her 1.22 career blocks-per-set average ranks eighth, and her .956 reception percentage ranks seventh. In 2003, she recorded 51 service aces, the sixth-most in CSU single-season history. Olmstead holds several of CSU's top individual single-match marks, as well, including a .654 hitting percentage (19-2-26) against Florida A&M on Aug. 30, 2003 (fourth-best for five-set matches), seven aces vs. New Mexico on Nov. 15, 2003 (tied-second for three-set matches) and 10 block assists on two occasions (tied-second for three-set matches).

Off the court, she was an outstanding student-athlete, something she's been able to carry over as a member of the Rams staff. Olmstead was a two-time Mountain West Academic All-Conference selection, and in 2003-04 became the program's first-ever Mountain West Scholar-Athlete.

In 2005, Olmstead served as a student-assistant for the Rams while completing her degree. She then played professionally in France for MVS La Rochette during the 2006 season. Her club finished second in the French league that year.
Olmstead returned to Fort Collins in 2007 to pursue a career in coaching. She was the team's video and statistics coordinator during the 2007 season, before joining the staff full-time as an assistant coach from 2008-11. As an assistant, her emphasis was on first-contact defense, serving and scouting.

She tutored the school's top libero, Katelin Batten (2006-09), who holds the CSU record for career digs (1,783). On the serving end, CSU set a program record for serve percentage in 2011, effectively serving at a 92.4 percent rate. The statistic began being tracked in 2001, and from 2009 to 2011, all under Olmstead, CSU had its top three percentages at the time.

From 2008-11, CSU won three conference titles and advanced as far as the 2009 NCAA Sweet 16. CSU's overall record with Olmstead on the bench as an assistant coach was 98-24 (.803), including at least one NCAA tournament victory each year. Of Olmstead's 12 seasons with CSU, in any capacity, the Rams have won 10 regular-season conference titles, in addition to three conference tournament championships in four tries. CSU has played in the NCAA tournament all 12 seasons with Olmstead.

A native of Eschwege, Germany, she received a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration from CSU in 2005. She is married to Charlie Olmstead and has two daughters Lilly and AJ. Olmstead resides in Loveland, Colo.

HILBERT ON OLEKSAK: "Katie Oleksak is a leader. She is a very talented setter. She is very active and mobile and athletic. Her club team is laced with top volleyball talent going to places like USC and Arizona and Nebraska, so she's played volleyball with great players for a long time and she understands how to create things through tempo and deception. In my opinion, she is ready to go as a player, as much as anyone has been. I look across the country and I see a lot of great setters, and Katie is right there with them. So because of the success of her team and what she's done to help them win, that's why I feel she's the top setting prospect in the country."

BREANA RUNNELS 15

R-SO • Outside Hitter • 5-10
Bakersfield, Calif. (Independence HS)

AWARDS & HONORS
- MW Newcomer of the Year (2017)
- MW All-Conference (2017)
- CSU Tournament I All-Tournament Team (2017)
- Seminole Invitational All-Tournament Team (2017)

2017 (FRESHMAN): Had a breakout season for the Rams, playing in all 33 matches making 14 starts... Led the team with 367 kills - most for a freshman in the modern score era and the second most all time... Paced the team with a 3.19 kills per set average... Had 19 matches recording double-figure kills... made her collegiate debut against Duke on Aug. 25 and recorded 10 kills... Posted a career-high 20 kills at New Mexico on Oct. 21... Recorded a season-best seven blocks - one solo - against Idaho State on Sept. 10.

2016: Redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: Was named Independence High School's team MVP in 2014 and top offensive player in 2013... Team captain in 2014 and 2015... Earned AVCA National Player of the Week recognition in 2013... two-time first team all-area honoree... Led her squad to a pair of South Yosemite League championships and was named league MVP.

PERSONAL: Born Jan. 21 1998, in Honolulu... Grew up in Bakersfield, Calif... Parents are Sabrina and Vincent Runnels... Majoring in construction management.

HILBERT ON RUNNELS: "Breana has a fantastic arm swing and she does jump well. She's not a big tall outside hitter, in fact we are getting a little bit smaller with this class. She gets up in the air high enough. Two things she's going to have to learn to do, and hopefully she learns this year, is serve-receive a little better and attack the ball at a higher trajectory. She has a very impressive arm and hits extremely hard. She also has a really nice, calm demeanor as she plays. She's kind of a sleeper in this class and I think she is going to be a contributor pretty early in her career."

2018 SEASON OUTLOOK

Katie Oleksak was named to the 2018 Mountain West Preseason Player of the Year after she was named the Mountain West Player of the Year in 2017.

Redshirt sophomore middle blocker, Kirstie Hillyer was named to the 2018 All-Mountain West Preseason Team after earning her second All-Mountain West award in 2017.

The Colorado State volleyball team will enter the 2018 season ranked No. 25 in the AVCA Division I Coaches' Poll and as the favorite to win the Mountain West Conference title for the ninth-straight year. The expectations are high yet again, with good reason – the Rams reached the their 23rd consecutive NCAA Tournament in 2017 and finished with a 29-4 overall record, and 17-1 in loop play.

THE RETURNING RAMS

CSU returns five starters that started 10 or more matches in 2017 and its junior libero, Amanda Young. Among the returnees is junior setter Katie Oleksak, who was selected as the Mountain West Preseason Player of the Year.

Ciera brings a plethora of awards to Fort Collins, starting with helping her team finish second in State 1B as a starting setter in 8th grade and earning First-Team All-League honors. As a freshman, her team finished third in State and again was named to the First-Team All-League team. Her sophomore season she was named the League MVP and the State Tournament MVP. The following season she guided her team to a 4A State Championship and was named to the State Championship All-Tournament First-Team and First-Team All-League. She also was named All-American-High Honorable Mention. Her senior season brought her First-Team All-League, Top-250 Senior Aces and Gatorade Player of the Year Nominee honors, while she led her team to a League Championship and District Championship.

2018 SCHEDULE PREVIEW

The Colorado State volleyball team and Head Coach Tom Hilbert have announced the 2018 schedule, which includes 15 home matches at Moby Arena. Included among the home opponents are Illinois, Florida State and TCU, all of which made postseason appearances a season ago.

The defending Mountain West champion Rams have five matches against 2017 NCAA Tournament competitors – two of which advanced to the Sweet 16. In total, CSU will play programs from 10 different conferences.

CSU opens with its first of three non-conference tournament weekends at Moby Arena. The Rams will host Illinois – 2017 NCAA Tournament Sweet 16 participant – in their season opener on Friday, August 24 at 7 p.m. MT. CSU will host UNC Wilmington from the Colonial Athletic Association the following morning, Aug. 25, at 11 a.m. That match will precede the season opening football game between CSU and Hawaii at Canvas Stadium at 5:30 p.m.

The Rams will travel to Greeley, Colo., on Aug. 28 to play Northern Colorado, before hosting their second non-conference tournament of the season. CSU will welcome 2017 opponents TCU and Florida State, with the addition of Cincinnati, into Moby Arena for a four-team round-robin tournament, Aug. 31-Sept. 2. The Rams defeated both TCU and Florida State in 2017 in Tallahassee, Fla. The Seminoles lost to Washington State in the first round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, while TCU accepted an invite into the National Invitational Volleyball (NIT) Championship and advanced to the Elite 8 for the first time in program history.

Following its home tournament, Colorado State will head to Ann Arbor, Mich., Sept. 7-8 for three matches. The Rams will begin the weekend playing their fourth 2017 postseason team with LSU on Sept. 7 at 9 a.m. MT, before playing at Oakland from the Horizon League that night at 5:30 p.m. CSU will finish the trip facing host Michigan on Sept. 8 at 5 p.m. MT in a rematch from the first round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament.

CSU will conclude its non-conference schedule hosting Indiana State of the Missouri Valley Conference on Sept. 14 at 6 p.m. MT in Moby Arena. Colorado State will also play Portland State and in-state rival Colorado on Sept. 15 in Boulder, Colo., to close its non-conference slate.

Colorado State will begin its quest to defend its Mountain West title, while looking to add its 20th conference championship to its trophy case, at Nevada on Sept. 20 at 7:30 p.m. MT. The Rams will host their first Mountain West match in Moby Arena on Sept. 22 against San Jose State–their lone conference loss in 2017. CSU will play 18 MW matches, playing each team twice aside from Nevada and San Jose State.

The Rams have been one of the nation's most consistently successful programs for more than two decades. CSU has reached 23 consecutive NCAA Tournaments (the seventh-longest streak in the NCAA), reaching the 20-win plateau in each of those seasons. Under Hilbert, the Rams own a 538-126 overall record, while a 301-35 home record and have ranked in the top-20 nationally in attendance every year since 2004.

PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR:
Katie Oleksak, Colorado State

THOUGHTS FROM HEAD COACH TOM HILBERT:

On the season ahead...
"I think it is a difficult non-conference season that will test us a lot and I do think that there are a couple teams in the conference that have gotten better. I expect this season to be a challenge and we'll have our ups and downs because we are indoctrinating some new players into the system. It will be challenging and I think it'll be a lot of fun."

On the outside hitter position...
"We have five players competing for two spots and all five are confident players. We have three returning players (Ellie Gubser, Jessica Jackson, Olivia Nicholson) and two freshman (Jacqi Van Liefde, Sasha Colombo). We'll pick two people out of those five and just see who emerges."

On what can be expected from this team...
"Obviously we want to compete for a Mountain West Championship. How we do again some of the top-notch opponents early will be important later in the season in regards to a NCAA Tournament seed, should we be fortunately enough to get in again. I don't' think that those early matches are a make-or-break in the season. I think they are testers to show us where we are at and where we need to go. The big thing is being ready go when we start conference and be ready to be competitive with every team in the league.

A WINNING TRADITION

CHAMPIONS ON THE COURT

Since the Mountain West's inception in 1999, the Rams have been stalwarts in the league, winning 14 of the 19 regular-season titles. Additionally, CSU has earned five Mountain West Championships crowns in nine seasons (the tournament ran from 1999-06 and again in 2011). The 19 total championships is more than all other Mountain West schools combined — past and present.

CSU finished at the top of the regular-season standings again in 2017, earning its eighth tile in the last nine season with a 17-1 league mark.

The Rams also won five straight regular-season titles from 2000-04. For those who have played four seasons under Head Coach Tom Hilbert, each has won at least two conference titles, with all but three players winning at least three. Marlee Reynolds, Deedra Foss and Kelsey Snider finished their careers at CSU in 2014 with five titles to their credit, while Jaime Colaizzi and Adrianna Culbert finished with four each from 2012-15.

In 19 years with the MW, CSU has won or shared the regular-season or tournament championship in all but three seasons. The program also boasts titles from both the Western Athletic Conference (1998 Mountain Division) and the High County Athletic Conference (1984, '85), totaling 22 overall conference championships, more than any other sport at CSU.

OTHER MW NOTES:

>> The Rams hold an all-time record of 265-37 (.877) in MW matches.

>> From Nov. 4, 2005 to Nov. 15, 2013, CSU won 50 consecutive home matches against current members of the MW.

>> Multiple MW schools have earned NCAA tournament appearances in all but five seasons, including over three teams represented on 12 occasions.

2017 Mountain West >> Regular Season

29-4 Overall, 17-1 MW

After graduating just one senior the season before, the Rams returned all six starters - losing their libero. Colorado State once again stunned opponents in the non-conference schedule, sweeping a pair of top-25 opponents (No. 15 Florida State and No. 16 Michigan). Colorado State was picked to win the Mountain West for the fourth-straight season. The Rams cruised through the MW schedule, recording 12 conference sweeps, finishing the season with a 28-3 overall record and 17-1 conference mark. A program and Mountain West record six Rams earned All-Conference honors. Colorado State made its 23rd-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance and won its first round match with a rematch with Michigan in Stanford, Calif., before falling to defending national champion No. 4 Stanford.

2015 Mountain West >> Regular Season

26-4 Overall, 18-0 MW

The Rams went unbeaten in league play, going 18-0 as part of a 20-match win streak to close the regular season. The title was CSU's seventh in-a-row. CSU closed its conference slate with a thrilling five-set win at Wyoming on Nov. 24. The Rams totaled 13 sweeps against Mountain West foes, and only went to five sets twice against conference teams. CSU was led by Mountain West Player of the Year, Adrianna Culbert, as well as MW Newcomer of the Year, Alex Reid and All-Region honoree, Acacia Andrews.

2014 Mountain West >> Regular Season

31-3 Overall, 17-1 MW

The Rams lost just one match in conference play for the second straight year and spent most of the season ranked in the top 10 nationally en route to their sixth straight Mountain West title. Led by Third Team All-American and Mountain West Player of the Year, Deedra Foss, CSU reached the Sweet 16 and ended the season ranked No. 12. CSU also played in front of three of its top 10 largest home crowds of all time, including a school and conference-record 7,018 fans for the Rams' home match against Wisconsin. CSU also beat three ranked teams over the course of the season - No. 9 BYU, No. 18 Arizona State and No. 19 Colorado. Adrianna Culbert, Marlee Reynolds, Kelsey Snider and Jaime Colaizzi also earned all-MW accolades.

2013 Mountain West >> Regular Season

28-2 Overall, 19-1 MW

Expected to be a rebuilding year after graduating four senior starters from the year prior, CSU proved to be anything but, nearly running the table en route to a record-setting season. The Rams won their first 27 matches – a school and conference record – and remained undefeated into the final week of the season. CSU finished its Mountain West slate 19-1, winning its fifth consecutive regular-season title. Senior Samantha Peters was named the conference's Player of the Year, Head Coach Tom Hilbert earned his ninth Coach of the Year honor and setter Deedra Foss was tabbed as the league's best setter. Two other Rams earned All-Mountain West honors. Additionally, senior Michelle Smith earned her fifth conference championship ring, becoming just the second Ram in program history to win five throughout her career.

2012 Mountain West >> Regular Season (co)

21-8 Overall, 13-3 MW

Losing their Mountain West opener for just the second time ever, the Rams rebounded from a rocky 3-2 start to conference play. Overall, CSU won 10 of its final 11 MW matches, including seven in a row to close out the year. CSU knocked off New Mexico on the final night of the regular season to be crowned conference champions for the fourth consecutive season. Senior Dana Cranston was named the MW Player of the Year, and three others joined her on the All-MW Team, including fellow seniors Brieon Paige and Megan Plourde. Those three, along with Izzy Gaulia, capped their collegiate careers winning four regular-season conference championships in four seasons.

2011 Mountain West >> Regular Season >> Tournament

24-6 Overall, 12-2 MW

Returning just one senior, CSU exceeded expectations, leading the Mountain West wire to wire and winning its third straight regular-season title. Leading the way was senior Katelyn Steffan, the MW Player of the Year. Entering the MW Championships as the top seed, CSU accomplished two feats that had only been done once before. The Rams became the second No. 1 seed to win the Championships, also becoming the second team to sweep all three matches. Steffan was named the MW Championships MVP. Dana Cranston, Brieon Paige and Megan Plourde each earned postseason honors by the conference, while Deedra Foss was named the MW Newcomer of the Year and Head Coach Tom Hilbert earned his eighth MW Coach of the Year award.

2010 Mountain West >> Regular Season

26-5 Overall, 14-2 MW

Despite the target on the Rams' backs, CSU led the league wire to wire for the second consecutive season en route to its second straight Mountain West title. Danielle Minch was named the league's Player of the Year for the second consecutive season. She was one of four seniors on the roster, three of which were four-year starters. Sophomore Megan Plourde and junior Evan Sanders were also honored by the conference, being named to the All-MW Team.

2009 Mountain West >> Regular Season

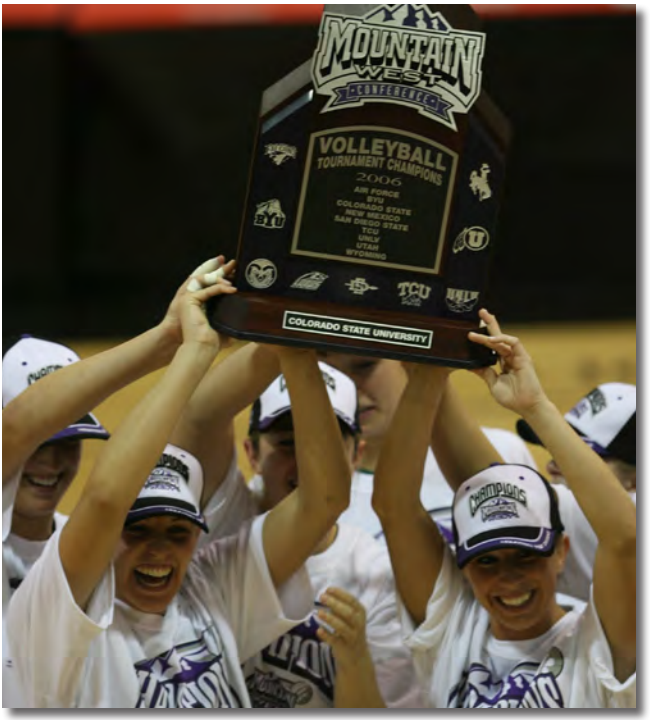
25-6 Overall, 15-1 MW

After opening the season 4-3, the CSU volleyball Team hit its stride in early September, winning 19 of 21 matches to close out the regular season. The Team rolled to a 15-1 mark in Mountain West action, claiming the program's seventh MW regular-season championship. Junior Danielle Minch was named MW Player of the Year, while senior Katelin Batten was tabbed the MW's top libero. Senior Tessa Nelson, sophomore Evan Sanders and freshman Megan Plourde each garnered all-MW honors. Head Coach Tom Hilbert was named MW Coach of the Year.

2007 Mountain West >> Regular Season

23-8 Overall, 13-3 MW

The 2007 season saw the Rams earn their sixth MW regular-season championship since 2000. Junior middle blocker Mekana Barnes was named the MW Player of the Year while junior setter Ashley Fornstorm earned all-conference honors as the Setter of the Year. Tonya Mokelki and Jaime Strauss also earned all-conference honors. The Rams went a perfect 14-0 at home including a perfect in MW play.



2006 Mountain West >> Tournament

20-10 Overall, 11-5 MW

The Rams captured their fourth tournament title in eight years as they upset No. 9 Utah in the championship match. In dramatic fashion, the Rams topped the Utes in five games. CSU trailed 20-11 in Game 3 and faced one match point before winning the third game 34-32 and then rolling to the title. Sophomore outside hitter Jaime Strauss was named the MVP of the tournament.

2004 Mountain West >> Regular Season (co) >> Tournament

21-9 Overall, 13-1 MW

In 2004, Colorado State won at least a share of the Mountain West regular-season title for a fifth straight season. CSU won its first five conference matches before falling to No. 18 Utah in four games in Moby. The Rams then rallied to win their final eight league matches, including a three-game sweep over the No. 17 Utes in Salt Lake in front of a national television audience (CSTV). Colorado State went on to become the first host school in league history to win the Mountain West tournament, winning its second straight automatic berth to the NCAA Championship.

2003 Mountain West >> Regular Season >> Tournament

30-5 Overall, 14-0 MW

Colorado State became the first team in Mountain West history to go through the regular season undefeated, and then became the first team to ever win both the regular-season and tournament crowns in the same year, winning three matches at San Diego State. Nine of the 14 regular-season matches were three-game sweeps for the Rams, including six straight.

2002 Mountain West >> Regular Season

22-10 Overall, 12-2 MW

2002 was considered by many to be a rebuilding year, but CSU again proved to be the dominant Team in the league, posting a 12-2 record for its third consecutive title. The Rams won their first four matches, then fell in five games to BYU in Moby. Winning their next three matches in four games each, the Rams headed to San Diego State, where they were swept for the first time in 27 league matches -- a feat that had only happened three times in the existence of the Mountain West. CSU rebounded, however, to win its final four matches and again bring home the title.

2001 Mountain West >> Regular Season

29-4 Overall, 13-1 MW

Probably the most dominant Team in Mountain West history, the 2001 Rams posted a 13-1 record and won their first 11 matches -- all in three -game sweeps -- before falling in five games at Utah. They then went on to win the final three matches, again in three-game sweeps. That year, the Rams won 37 straight games, second longest in school history to the 40 straight by the 2000 squad.

2000 Mountain West >> Regular Season

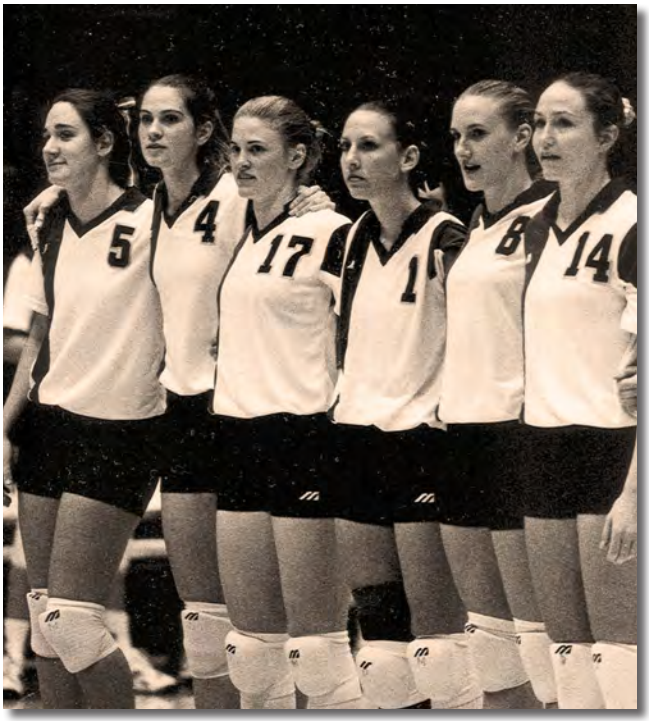
32-5 Overall, 13-1 MW

The 2000 Team started a streak of five straight regular-season titles, posting a 13-1 record with the only blemish being a three-game setback at BYU. The Rams started the conference season with eight three-game sweeps before losing to the Cougars. The Rams then defeated New Mexico in four, swept Air Force, defeated San Diego State in five and swept UNLV to win the title. In the tournament, BYU defeated the Rams in the championship match in Moby, snapping a record 44-match home winning streak.

1999 Mountain West >> Tournament

30-3 Overall, 12-2 MW

The Rams began their dominance in the newly created Mountain West. After a 12-2 mark in the inaugural season of MW play, the Rams dominated the postseason tournament to lock up an NCAA tournament berth. Five players earned all-conference recognition, led by tournament MVP Catie Vagneur.

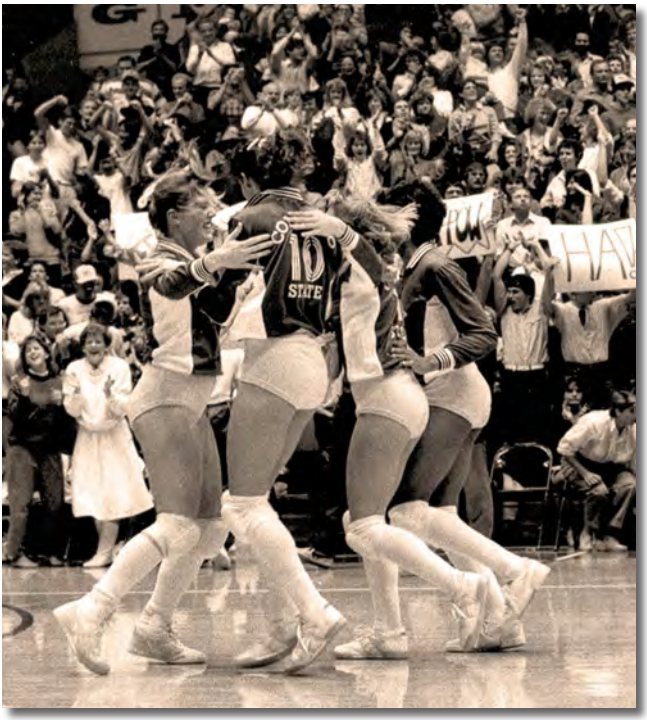


1998 WAC >> Regular Season

(Mountain Div.)

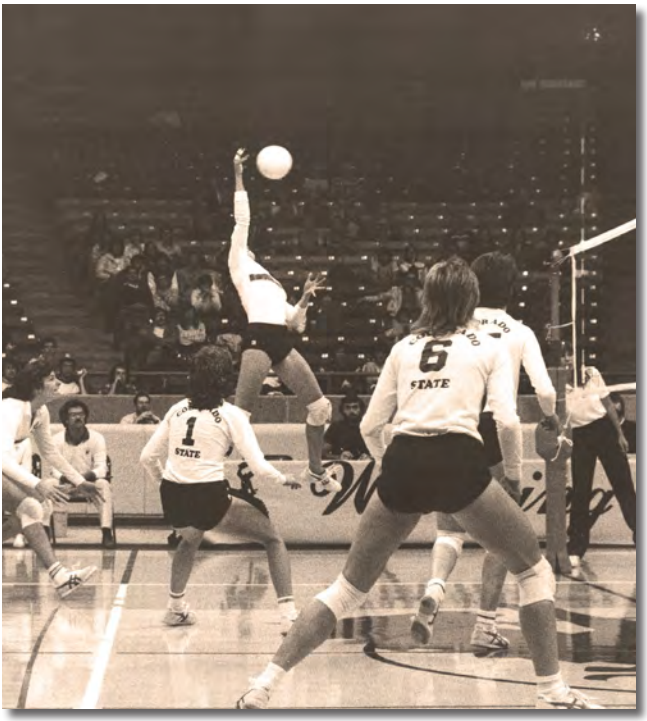
24-8 Overall, 12-2 WAC

Colorado State won its first conference title in 13 seasons winning the Mountain Division of the WAC in its final year in that conference. The Rams posted a 12-2 record, dropping only decisions at Rice and at UNLV. CSU won its first seven matches before losing in Houston, then tallied four straight three-game sweeps and a five-game thriller against Wyoming before losing in four to the Rebels. The Rams won their final match to enter the WAC tournament as the No. 1 seed in the Mountain Division.



1985 HCAC
>> Regular Season
26-9 Overall, 11-1 HCAC

In 1985 the Rams posted an 11-1 record in High Country Athletic Conference play to win their second straight title. CSU won its first nine matches before losing at No. 18 BYU, and then swept Wyoming and Utah State for the second conference title in school history.



1984 HCAC
>> Regular Season
26-9 Overall, 12-0 HCAC

The very first conference volleyball title for Colorado State came in 1984 with an undefeated record in High Country Athletic Conference play. The Rams recorded five of their 12 wins with three-game sweeps and an impressive 4-0 record in five-game matches, including the last two at New Mexico State and New Mexico to remain unbeaten.

With annual success on the court, the country has taken note of the Colorado State volleyball program and the type of athletes the school develops. In its history, CSU has produced 14 AVCA All-Americans, which ranks 16th in the nation.

Over the last seven seasons, CSU has had five All-America selections, including two players in 2011 – Megan Plourde and Katelyn Steffan. It marked just the fourth time that two Rams teammates have been selected during the same season.

In addition to the 15 AVCA All-America selections, CSU has produced four Volleyball Magazine All-Americans and 28 honorable mentions. What's more, the Rams have earned 54 AVCA All-Region nods, including at least two each season since 2007. Plourde, who wrapped up her career in 2012, became the first player in program history to be a four-time All-Region selection.

Adrianna Culbert was honored in Omaha, Neb., for her All-American efforts during the 2015 campaign.

ADRIANNA CULBERT | DELTON, MICH. | THIRD TEAM (2015)

Culbert made headlines throughout 2015, including winning a pair of national player of the week awards (AVCA and espnW) and two Mountain West Player of the Week honors, and closed the season as the Mountain West Player of the Year. Culbert was named Mile High Sports Magazine's College Athlete of the Year, becoming the first CSU volleyball player to earn the award. She was also named the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame Female Collegiate Athlete of the Year. She had a match to remember at San Jose State on Oct. 17, recording the first quadruple-double in the NCAA in over five years by totaling 10 kills, 20 assists, 13 digs and 11 blocks. Culbert was also an Honorable Mention AVCA All-American as a junior in 2014. With one year of NCAA eligibility (in a different sport) remaining, Culbert joined the South Carolina beach volleyball squad in 2016.

DEEDRA FOSS | MCKENNA, WASH. | THIRD TEAM (2014)

Deedra Foss closed her stellar CSU career by earning Third Team All-America honors and receiving Mountain West Player of the Year recognition. Foss was one of the elite setters in the country in 2014, and was one of only two players to rank in the top 10 for assists while her team ranked in the top 10 in hitting percentage. Foss, who was named the Sports Imports/AVCA National Player of the Week on Nov. 25, 2014, also led all setters in the region in blocks with 0.73. Foss was also an All-MW selection in 2012 and 2013 - including being the designated setter as a junior, and in 2011 was the conference's Newcomer of the Year. Foss' 4,833 career assists rank fifth all-time at CSU, and are the top mark in the 25-point set era.

DANA CRANSTON | FORT ST. JOHN, B.C. | THIRD TEAM (2012)

Dana Cranston was the team anchor as a senior, propelling CSU to a fourth consecutive Mountain West title and earning AVCA All-America honors. Cranston ranked second in the MW for kills, points and aces, and ranked first among outside hitters for hitting percentage as a senior. The native of Fort St. John, B.C., was a two-time All-MW selection, including being named the MW Player of the Year in 2012. She became CSU's second-ever Academic All-American, and was also one of 10 national Senior CLASS Award finalists and 30 honorees for the 2013 NCAA Woman of the Year. While at CSU, the Rams advanced to four NCAA tournaments, and won four consecutive MW conference championships. After college, Cranston competed with the Canadian National Team and played professionally in France.

MEGAN PLOURDE | SOMERSET, WIS. | THIRD TEAM (2011)

Megan Plourde earned AVCA All-America status in 2011 after being the nation's best blocker, averaging 1.71 blocks per set. The Somerset, Wis., native finished her in CSU history in career ranked first in career block assists and second in total blocks. She ranked third in Mountain West history for total blocks at the conclusion of her career, in addition to being a dynamic and efficient attacker. Plourde became CSU's first-ever four-time All-MW selection and four-time AVCA All-Region recipient. During her career, the Rams won four MW titles, and advanced to the NCAA tournament each season, including the Regional Quarterfinals three times and the Regional Semifinals once. In 2011, she also was a Volleyball Magazine All-American and in September 2012 was named the AVCA National Player of the Week. After college, she competed professionally in Croatia and Switzerland.

KATELYN STEFFAN | DICKINSON, N.D. | THIRD TEAM (2011)

Katelyn Steffan took her game to a new level during her senior season, switching to the left side and becoming one of the conference's best attackers, blockers and servers. CSU won both the Mountain West regular-season and tournament championships in 2011, also earning titles in 2009 and 2010 with Steffan on the court. CSU ranked as high as No. 14 in the nation as a senior, and in her four seasons, the Rams advanced to the NCAA tournament each year, including the Regional Semifinals in 2009. The Dickinson, N.D., native earned the 2011 MW Player of the Year and MW tournament MVP awards after leading the conference in kills and points, which also earned her a spot as an AVCA All-American.

MEKANA BARNES | HIGHLANDS RANCH, COLO. | THIRD TEAM (2007)

Mekana Barnes will go down in CSU volleyball history as one of the most dynamic athletes to don a Rams uniform. Barnes was a four-year starter, and became one of the hardest hitters and most-feared middle attackers in the Mountain West. In both 2007 and 2008, she ranked among the top five blockers nationally, and in 2007 was the only player in the country to rank in the top 10 for both blocks and kills per set. During Barnes' playing tenure, CSU qualified for the NCAA tournament all four seasons, and ranked as high as No. 12, in 2008. She was named to the All-MW Team three times and was the 2007 MW Player of the Year, the same year she earned an AVCA All-America nod. She earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention in 2008. Barnes went on to play professionally in Puerto Rico and Spain, and trained with the U.S. National Team in China and Egypt.

SORAYA SANTOS | VITÓRIA, BRAZIL | SECOND TEAM (2001)

Soraya Santos became CSU's first two-year player to earn All-America recognition. After beginning her career at the College of Southern Idaho, Santos transferred to CSU, and as a senior was named a 2001 AVCA All-American. Her lighting-fast arm swing made her one of the best jump servers in school history. She earned All-Mountain West status both years of her career, and set the MW tournament record for aces in a match, with eight vs. Air Force in 2001. Her career .350 hitting percentage ranked second in CSU history at the conclusion of her career. Santos was born in Vitória, Brazil, and won two MW titles and four NCAA tournament matches. This fall, she begins her After her career at CSU, she played professionally in several countries, including Spain, Portugal and France.

ANGELA KNOPF | TROUTDALE, ORE. | FIRST TEAM (2000, 01)

Angela Knopf was CSU's first two-time first-team AVCA All-America selection, earning the honors in 2000 and 2001. She was the 1998 WAC Freshman of the Year and a three-time All-Mountain West recipient, in addition to becoming a two-time MW Player of the Year. She led the nation in hitting percentage in 2001, a figure that still ranks eighth in NCAA volleyball history. Knopf finished her career as the Rams' all-time leader in hitting percentage, aces and total blocks, and fourth in kills. The native of Troutdale, Ore., played in four NCAA tournaments, winning seven total matches. In 2000, she became CSU's first Academic All-American, again receiving the honor in 2001. She was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2006. After college, she trained with the U.S. National Team, and competed on the AVP tour for seven years.

COURTNEY COX | LONGMONT, COLO. | SECOND TEAM (2000)

A dynamic all-around athlete, Courtney Cox concluded her career as the school's top blocking outside hitter. In addition to being named a 2000 AVCA All-American, she was a three-time All-Mountain West and MW tournament selection, and also competed in track & field as a senior. She helped the Rams to a 115-20 record, three regular-season and two MW tournament championships, and four NCAA tournament appearances, including the Regional Semifinals twice. In 1999, she was selected to the NCAA Tournament All-Region Team. Cox was also named the 2000 NACWAA State Farm Classic MVP, after CSU defeated No. 1 UCLA. At the conclusion of her career, she ranked in the top five for career kills and attacks, and was one of six players with more than 1,500 kills. She was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2011.

CATIE VAGNEUR | ASPEN, COLO. | SECOND TEAM (1999)

After breaking CSU's career attacks record, Catie Vagneur went on to become the 1999 Mountain West tournament MVP. She also became CSU's first AVCA All-American in more than a decade, earning a selection in 1999. That year, she was named to the Volleyball Magazine All-America honorable mention team, as well. She finished her career ranked first in career attacks, fourth in kills, fifth in sets played and sixth in digs. In 1996, she was named the WAC Freshman of the Year. Vangneur earned All-WAC status as a junior and an All-MW selection during her senior year. Vagneur, originally from Aspen, Colo., went 104-28 as a Ram and earned four NCAA tournament berths. CSU earned the 1998 WAC Mountain Division title before winning the 1999 Mountain West tournament.

ANGIE KNOX | ENGLEWOOD, COLO. | SECOND TEAM (1987)

Angie Knox led the Rams to a 107-36 record during her career, the best four-year mark in school history until 2001. The Rams advanced to three NCAA Regional Semifinals appearances, and four overall trips to the NCAA tournament. She was a two-time first-team All-HCAC selection, and was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2001. To this day, she ranks among the top 10 in four career categories and five-single season lists, including a program-record 707 kills in 1986. She earned AVCA All-America status in 1987. After graduation, the Englewood, Colo., native played professionally in Chicago and with the 1985 U.S. Olympic Festival.

DIANE SABA | WHEAT RIDGE, COLO. | FIRST TEAM (1987)

Diane Saba was a two-time All-HCAC selection and the HCAC Offensive Player of the Year as a senior. That year, 1987, she also earned first-team AVCA All-America honors after recording 195 total blocks — which ranked first in CSU history at the time and is still in CSU's top three. She also finished her career ranked first in solo blocks and aces. The Wheat Ridge, Colo., native advanced to the NCAA tournament each year of her career, and won an HCAC title in 1985. CSU ranked as high as No. 5 nationally during her time on the court After college, she played two years of professional volleyball, and was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000.

SHERRI DANIELSON | EVERGREEN, COLO. | SECOND TEAM (1984, '85)

Sherri Danielson earned CSU's first-ever AVCA All-America honor, becoming a second-team selection in 1984. The standout was also honored as a senior, being named to the 1985 AVCA All-America second Team. Additionally, Danielson was a two-time HCAC Player of the Year and three-time All-HCAC selection. She was a member of the U.S. National Team, and was an alternate on the 1988 Olympic squad. Danielson's No. 12 jersey was retired in 1992 and hangs from the rafters in Moby Arena. She finished her career ranked first in CSU history for kills, attacks, hitting percentage and aces. Danielson led the Rams to a pair of HCAC titles and three NCAA tournament appearances during her career. She was inducted into the CSU Athletics Hall of Fame in 1988.

MENCIMER MEMORIAL AWARD - Annual award given to CSU's top scholar-athlete.

MW SCHOLAR-ATHLETE - Established in 2003-04, the highest academic honor bestowed by the conference; is awarded to student-athletes with a 3.5 cumulative GPA or higher.

ACADEMIC ALL-MW - Given to student-athletes with a cumulative GPA above 3.0 and who have competed in at least 50 percent of her team's contest that season.

The Rams have earned respect nationwide as one of the most consistent and successful programs in NCAA history. In fact, CSU has been ranked in 299 of the AVCA's all-time top-25 polls. Only 11 teams, entering 2018, have been ranked more frequently than the Rams. What's more, CSU has been ranked in the final AVCA poll 18 of 36 seasons, including seven of the last eight since 2008, which ranks 17th.

CSU's highest-ever ranking was No. 3, in September and October 2000, shortly after the Rams took down No. 1 UCLA. CSU's best overall finish to a season was No. 6 in 1987. The Rams have been ranked in the top 10 a total of 76 weeks, 18th-most in the NCAA.

They have finished the season ranked in the top 10 four times (1984, 1987, 2000 and 2001), and are one of just 25 teams to ever be ranked in the top three.

Head Coach Tom Hilbert doesn't shy away when talking about Moby Arena – the home court of the Colorado State volleyball program – calling it the greatest volleyball venue in America. It is one of the most distinctive and effective home-court playing facilities in the nation. Thanks to its dedicated fans, Moby Arena is home to crowds and winning percentages matched by few programs across the country.

OTHER MOBY ARENA NOTES

>> 28-16 home record against ranked teams under Head Coach Tom Hilbert.

>> In 2013, CSU averaged a program-record 3,283 fans per match, which ranked seventh in the country.

>> The Rams have been ranked in the Top 25 nationally for attendance each season since the NCAA began reporting the category in 1986, including the top 10 on eight occasions and the nation's leader in 1988.

>> NCAA tournament host 12 seasons, including the 2008 Regional Finals.

>> 50-1 record under Hilbert against Colorado's four other Division I teams at home.

Colorado State has a history of not only developing outstanding players in Fort Collins, but for many, that extends to a professional career in volleyball. Three members of the 2012 senior class went on to play professionally.

"We've helped give these players the opportunity to further their careers on a professional stage, which is really fun for me," Head Coach Tom Hilbert said. "It's a big part of their lives and a time they'll cherish, and for some people, like Soraya, it's their career and their life. I'm proud that we've had so many players play professionally, and I think that speaks to the development we provide at Colorado State. I even like to get over there and share it with them when I can."

Twice since the turn of the century a CSU player has led the nation in a statistical category – Angela Knopf in 2001, hitting .456, and Megan Plourde in 2011, averaging 1.71 blocks per set. Since the NCAA officially began tracking category leaders in 2001, several CSU individuals and Rams teams have ranked among the best in the nation.

Below is a look at CSU's Top-50 individual and team rankings since 2001.

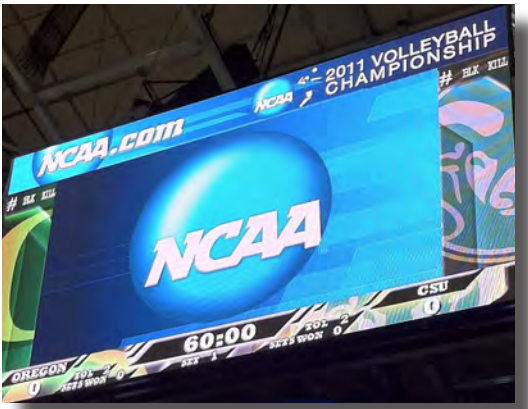
POSTSEASON GUIDE

TOURNAMENT STREAKING



Postseason play year in and year out is an expectation at CSU. In fact, one would have to look back to 1994 to find the last time the Rams were not in the NCAA Tournament. In all, CSU has been to 29 of the 36 all-time tournaments, including 23 in a row.

Just 10 Division I teams have earned more tournament berths than CSU, and the Rams' stretch of 23 consecutive appearances is the seventh-longest active streak in the country.

Not only does CSU get to the tournament on an annual basis, but the team wins when it gets there. The Rams have been to the regional semifinals (Sweet 16) on 10 occasions — most recently in 2014 — and won their opening-round match five consecutive seasons from 2007-11.

Over the years, Moby Arena has been a host site for NCAA tournament matches 11 times, including the 2014 Regional Finals. The Rams have had tremendous success on their home court, going 15-2 in tournament matches at Moby Arena.

WELCOME! We appreciate your coverage of Colorado State Athletics, and look forward to working with you to accommodate you and your organization within the framework of the following media policy. The policies are jointly established by Head Coach Tom Hilbert and the Athletics Communications office. Please take a few minutes to read through and familiarize yourself with these guidelines. Violations of these policies could result in revoked credentials or limitations on access. Please feel free to contact Jeff Schmidt at (970) 305-7382 or via email at jeff.schmidt@colostate.edu, at any time with any questions.

Interview access to players and coaches throughout the calendar year is as follows:

GENERAL POLICIES

- All interviews with any member of the volleyball program, including Head Coach Tom Hilbert, the coaching staff and student-athletes must be coordinated through Jeff Schmidt in the athletics communications office.
- Members of the media are strictly prohibited from approaching any coach, staff member or student-athlete by any means – including text messages, email, phone calls (cell, office or home) or social media, such as Facebook and Twitter – without first approaching the athletics communications office.
- Regarding unique subject matter, such as human-interest angles, members of the media are welcome to approach the athletics communications office at least 24 hours in advance with requests to interview any member of the program.

INTERVIEW GUIDELINES

- Interviews, either in person or via telephone, with members of Colorado State's volleyball coaching staff and student-athletes must be coordinated through communications coordinator Jeff Schmidt.
- Media are asked not to request an individual's personal contact information, including email and cell number, but rather to contact Jeff Schmidt.
- Student-athletes and coaches are available for interviews at the conclusion of daily practice sessions. Student-athlete interviews will not conflict with classes, meetings, medical treatment or practice times.
- Interviews are not permitted in the locker room or training room. Interviews will not be granted on match days until following the contest.
- Telephone interviews should be requested at least 24 hours in advance and coordinated through Jeff Schmidt. All interviews will be processed on an availability basis involving the requested interviewee.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

- Single-match credentials must be requested through Jeff Schmidt in writing at least three days in advance of a match. Approved requests will be mailed or can be picked up in the athletics communications office or at the match. On days of matches, credentials can be obtained just outside the West side of the Moby

Arena court. Media members are asked to enter through the McGraw Athletic Center doors (just East of the Moby Arena parking lot) and follow the ramp on the right down to the court. At the bottom of the ramp, a table will be set up with credentials.

PARKING
- Media parking is available at Moby Arena. Please contact the CSU athletics communications office to request a Moby Arena parking pass.
- Access to the parking lot will require an "A" permit from 7:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. on weekdays during the academic year. A limited number of single-day passes are available through the athletic communications office. Annual permits can be purchased through the Office of Parking Management website.

PRACTICE GUIDELINES
- All Colorado State volleyball practices are open to the media and public, unless otherwise noted.
- During the season, practice will generally run from 12:30-3 p.m. during the week, except on match and travel days. Please note, practice times are subject to change on short or no notice. At times, practice will end early, so please plan to arrive early. Practice will usually take place in Moby Arena, but contact Jeff Schmidt for the most updated schedule.
- All interviews must take place after the conclusion of practice. If this is an issue, contact Jeff Schmidt, and the athletics communications staff will try and accommodate your schedule.
- Media should remain on the sidelines, standing a safe distance from the boundary to prevent collisions. Members of the general public attending practice are asked to sit in Moby Arena upper seating.

GAMEDAY
- Near the end of each home match, the athletics communications staff will ask those on hand representing the media whom they wish to speak with. Approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of each match, Head Coach Tom Hilbert and the selected student-athletes will be brought to the Coors Auditorium, located in the McGraw Athletic Center, and will be available for questions.
- No student-athlete or coach can appear on a live postgame television or radio interview without permission obtained prior to the match from Jeff Schmidt.

GAMEDAY SERVICES
- In-game services include live online statistics and box scores following each set. Notes, transcribed quotes and statistics will be available following the conclusion of the match.
- The media room, which is located just West of the court at the bottom of the ramp connecting Moby Arena and the McGraw Athletic Center, will be open at least two hours prior to the start of a match, and will provide updated notes on both teams, statistics and other information.
- Moby Arena offers complimentary wireless Internet access. Check the media room for access information.

ROAD MATCHES
- We appreciate your coverage, and if you would like to cover the Rams in person during a road match, please notify Jeff Schmidt at least seven days in advance to provide ample time to request a credential from the opposing team.
- If you would like to talk to Head Coach Tom Hilbert after the conclusion of a road match via telephone, please notify Jeff Schmidt prior to the start of the match. After the match, a member of the athletics communications staff will call you so you can talk with Coach Hilbert. Student-athletes will try to be made available, as well, if requested.

REPORTING OF INJURIES
- At all times throughout the year, Head Coach Tom Hilbert will serve as the sole source for injury information. All questions related to injuries should be directed to Hilbert, and not to any other member of the program, including athletic trainers, doctors, the injured student-athlete or her teammates.

CSURAMS.COM
- The official website of Colorado State athletics is www.CSURams.com, featuring the latest news, information, statistics and rosters for all of the Rams' 16 athletic programs.

VOLLEYBALL EMAIL LIST
- To receive email updates on the Rams, email Jeff Schmidt at Jeff.Schmidt@colostate.edu with a message stating that you would like to be added to the distribution list.

WEEKLY RELEASES
- Weekly news releases are available 48 hours prior to the first match of each week on the school's official website, CSURams.com. News releases also will be emailed to media outlets upon request.

MOBY ARENA DIRECTIONS
- From the South (Denver): Take Interstate 25 North into Fort Collins. Exit I-25 (exit 268) and head West on Prospect Road. Turn right onto Shields. Moby Arena will be ahead and to your right. Enter the parking lot at the corner of Shields and Elizabeth streets.
- From the North (Cheyenne): Take Interstate 25 South into Fort Collins. Exit I-25 (exit 268) and head west on Prospect Road. Turn right onto Shields. Moby Arena will be ahead and to your right. Enter the parking lot from the corner of Shields and Elizabeth streets.
